Guest Speaker this week: Rotarian behind the Badge - Josh de Groot

President's Notes

Welcome Rotarians, .

At last weeks meeting we had lots of discussions around our meeting venue. I have spoken with Joscely Littlejohn and she will take our ideas back to her manager for further discussion.

Next weeks meeting is a Childrens and Grand Children's night. Rotarian Ian Smith is organising games and I have spoken to the hotel and they will provide a kids meal of fish and chips and salad and a petite desert for $11. Rotarian Terry Crawford will take numbers on Thursday night.

Agfest is coming soon, as this is a club project we will need as many Rotarians as possible to fill shifts.

I look forward to seeing you all on Thursday evening.

Yours in Rotary

President Glenda Iles

if you are unable to fulfil your rostered duty, please arrange for a replacement.

We are pleased to confirm a Professional Development Exchange with District 1461, Denmark.

The Danish team will be in Tasmania from Late May through to the end of June.

We are seeking expressions of interest in Hosting for periods of three to four nights.

It is envisaged that the team will fly into Launceston and spend some time in the North of the state before finishing in the south and flying out of Hobart.

We can all recall some wonderful times with GSE teams in the past – This is another opportunity to do so.

Meeting notes 12 April 2018

President Glenda

- Welcomed Andrea Bartholemew to the meeting
- Reinforced what was in the bulletin about the District Conference - a fantastic event, and all Rotarians should attend at least once
- Thanked Peter McB for a run sheet he's done on regalia
- The local Rotaract clubs have put out a plea for individual Rotarians to help them where they can
- A GSE group will be here from Denmark in late May. Any offers of accommodation would be appreciated

Graeme Le F - Club Service

- Went through some issues which have been discussed with the Grand Chancellor(GC) recently. All members present were given the opportunity to make comments about these issues. After this discussion, it was agreed that the appropriate club officers will advise the GC that
 - Our preference is to remain at the GC
 - It is acknowledged that there will be discussions on the future price of meals
 - The consensus is that dessert is not needed - maybe a fruit platter per table or a coffee and mint
 - Guest speaker meals will be covered by the club
 - There will be ongoing dialogue re the menu

Graeme Le F - Agfest

- Saturday 21st April - working bee at Chris Watkins depot to clean gear. Many hands needed. 9:30am
- Sunday 29th - Move vans to Agfest site - a few needed 9:30am
- Wednesday 2nd May - Set up at site. 9:30am
- Thursday 3rd, Friday 3rd, Saturday 4th - 3 Rosters per day. 10 - 11 needed on each Times are; 7 - 12, 9 - 1, 12 - 5

This should become the major fundraiser for the year, and is a big undertaking. Full support needed.

Rotary clubs throw axes to raise funds

Aprille Weron grew up in the suburbs of Philadelphia; it was, she recalls, “a very privileged life.” That’s why, when she heard about Philadelphia’s New Day Center – a Salvation Army-sponsored drop-in center that helps women and girls being trafficked for sex – she was shocked to learn that many of the people who come to the center are from that same area.

Aprille Weron, right, and her friend Brooke Williams raised funds with an axe-throwing tournament.

“We think that trafficking is something that’s far away,” says Weron, a member of the Rotary Club of King of Prussia, Pa. “But some of these girls went to the same schools that you and your friends went to.”

Weron and her friend Brooke Williams, a member of the Rotary Club of Philadelphia Happy Hour, decided to help raise funds for the center through an unusual activity: axe throwing. Held on 14 October, the Salvation Army’s Axe of Kindness 2017 Axe Throwing Tournament saw more than 40 community members – including Weron and Williams, who competed as The Rotaraxers – hurling 1.5-pound hatchets at a target.

“We threw a lot of axes that day,” Weron says. As with darts, the goal in axe throwing is to get as close as possible to the bull’s-eye. But the real goal, of course, was to raise funds for the New Day Center – which the event did, to the tune of $6,800.

Not only that, but the “Did you say axe throwing?” factor got others interested in the cause, Williams says: “Doing events like this is a fun way to raise money, but it also is a great way to advertise what we’re doing. It’s a little more attention-getting.”

The proof? When the Philadelphia Happy Hour club heard about the event, members decided to organize a second axe-throwing fundraiser for the New Day Center in December, with the aid of the Rotary clubs of Conshohocken-Plymouth-Whitemarsh and Philadelphia.

THE FOUR-WAY TEST
Of the things we think, say or do:

1. Is it the truth?
2. Is it fair to all involved?
3. Will it build goodwill and better friendships?
4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?
