PRESIDENT HARRY'S NOTES

Hello Rotarians,

I trust that you are well. There are those like me who are lucky having a partner/person doing all the planning for Christmas and others who are responsible for the logistics over the festive season. Either way there are 10 days to go and life automatically slows down on Christmas Day - my favorite time of year Christmas to New Year.

Last Thursday we had the family evening. The younger visitors (and older) had a great time with the games of skills and chance that evening. Again a big thank you to Rotarian Ian Smith for the planning and execution of the games.

For those attending, see you at this Thursday break-up event at the East Launceston Bowls Club. Come early (after 5pm) and test your hand at lawn bowls.

Cheers for now.

President Harry

LAST WEEK'S GAMES NIGHT.

AND FINALLY.....

T'was the night before Christmas, In Australia you know,
Way down on the beach, without any snow.
Asleep in their beach hut, were Benny
and Sue,
A dreaming of Christmas, like me and like you.

Not stockings but jet skis , at the foot of their beds,
For this was Australia, What more need be said?
When all of a sudden from out the still night,
There came such a ruckus, it gave me a fright!
And I saw 'cross the sand dunes, like the shot from a gun,
A loaded up ute came on at a run.
The driver was shouting as he came from the road
And the Heelers were sitting on top of the load

"Come on there Blue, Dfor, and Dog, hold on tight
There'll be plenty of travelin' for you-all tonight..
The driver in his bathers, and a towel that was red,
Had a bright red sun hat on the top of his head.
As he stepped from the ute, he was really a sight,
with his beard so curly, whirly and white.
As he burst in the beach hut, the children awoke,
And both so astonished, that neither one spoke.
And he filled up their jet skis with such presents galore,
That neither could think of a single thing more.
When Benny recovered the use of his jaws,
He asked in a whisper "Are you really Santa Claus?"
"Am I the real Santa? Well, what do you think?"
And he smiled as he gave his mysterious wink.
Then he left in his ute, and called back in slang:
G'day children of Aussie-
MERRY CHRISTMAS—COOEE!
